

Adversity, Trauma and Resilience

This is my pledge...

I'm proud to be a champion for our work on
adversity, trauma and resilience

Kersten England CBE

Chief Executive
City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council

I pledge to

- build greater understanding of the damage early experience of trauma and adversity wreaks on the whole course of people's lives
- to work for the elimination of all forms of abuse that are the source of so much trauma and adversity
- to secure commitment from all agencies to prioritise development of effective support for individuals, families and communities
- to build work that is deeply informed by and responds to the needs of those with lived experience of trauma and adversity
